Ir. J. II. Pipes arose and stated that the commissioners had been dissatisfied with Prof. Crugo for the past three pass. He complained of the average of the pupils of Ritchie school, which was seer than that of every other school in the city, with the exception of Lincoln whool. Dr. Pipes stated that he had been at the school hours and had been unable to find Prof. Crugo; that the latter lad revently been absent ten days, and that the commissioners had become tired of his gadding about. He will open the campaign in September, probably in Butler county, where Democrats are abundant. He will make at least one speech at some point on the river near Wheeling, and from the talk yesterday, Wheeling will contribute a few thousands of admirers to the gathering. Major McKinley left for Clarksburg at 2:35 by the B &O., accompanied as far as Moundsville by Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Pearson. The next governor of Ohio looks remarkably well, and altogether like a winner.

THE NEW POLE TROLLEY.

The Experiment on the Benwood End of the Electrical Railway.

An INTELLIGENCER reporter took a trip yesterday over the Benwood extension of the electric street railway on car L, which had been rigged up with the pole trolley. The car was run with the old-fashioned trolleys, and the others were attached to the car merely others were attached, to the car merely to ascertain to what extent the overhead cables would have to be alteredr As a result of the trip, it was found that it would be necessary to lower the cables at some points to enable the poles to reach them, and that in other places the cable would have to be brought directly over the cars, instead of being several feet to one side or the other. At the switches, of which there of being several feet to one side or the other. At the switches, of which there are five on the Benwood extension, it was found that overhead cable switches will be needed.

Mr. M. B. Loftus, superintendent of the railway, and Mr. John Garden, secretary of the Wheeling Electrical Company, were on the car and were pleased with the trial trip. An effort will be made to inaugurate the improved system by the begining of next week.

MULLINS IN THE PEN.

The Notorious Young Moonshiner goes up for two Years. Deputy U. S. Marshal G. W. Robinson yesterday brought up to the penitentiary at Moundsville from the U. S. court at Parkersburg Harry Mullins, the notorious moonshiner of Mercer and McDowell counties, who was reand McDowell counties, who was recently convicted of illicit distilling and sent up for two years. He was arrested after a hard chase, and is said to have a record of several murders and many other bold crimes, although he is but seventeen years old. It is said he was long the head of the most desporate and persistent gang of moonshiners that ever invested the mountains.
Captain Robinson says, however, that he is a remarkably mild mannered young fellow, and he never felt as much like taking the handcuffs off a prisoner in his life as he did yesterday.

AT THEIR ANNUAL MEETING HERE.

Teachers Elected for all the Schools but Two, but Those Two the Only Ones to which Especial Interets Attaches...The Remaining Business.

State Superintendent of Free Schools Morgan arrived from Charleston about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at 4:30 the Board of Regents of the State Normal Schools met in the parlors at the Windsor hotel, with Mr. Morgan, president ex-officio, in the chair, and Regents Riley, Snyder, Miller and Wiley -the full board-all present. The matter of appointing teachers for the school at Concord, Mercer county, was first taken up, and the desirability of making a change or two was discussed. After some time spent in consideration of the matter, it was deferred.

The Huntington school was next taken up, and Professor J. T. Hodges was re-elected principal, with the same corps of assistants he had at the last was re-elected principal, with the samecorps of assistants he had at the last spring term.

The Glenville school was next taken up, and Professor Tapp and his two lady assistants were all re-elected. The board then adjourned till 7:30 p. m.

After reassembling Professor Armstrong and his assistants were re-elected for the West kiberty school. This left only the Shepherdstown and Fairmont schools to be provided with faculties.
These were discussed, but no action taken, and about midnight the board adjourned fill 8:30 this morning.

To-day the Shepherdstown and Fairmont teachers are to be elected, all the local executive committees to be appointed, and action to be taken on a new site for the Fairmont school,—The regents may go to Fairmont to inspect the sites available.

Saved from the late Philadelphia fire. To-morrow (Satarday) at 9 o'clock promptly the doors are thrown open for this wonderful sale of clothing at the Mammoth building, No. 1115 Main street, Arbenz & Co.'s old stand. In consequence of the late Philadelphia fire, of which some papers gave a full account, where the front portion only of five entire floors of one of the largest manufacturing clothiers of that city was ablaze, over $40,000 worth of fine Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing was saved and untouched, and the entire stock has been ordered by the insurance authorities to be removed to Wheeling, West Va., and the immense building No. 1115 Main street, Arbenz & Co.'s old stand, has been rented at an enormous expense for this great fire insurance sale of clothing. All goods are appraised at $3\frac{1}{2}$ cents on the dollar.

Follow the prices closely. Here's how they'llgo: 68 cents will buy good Working Pants, worth $150. 98 cents buys much better, worth $200. $198 buys all wool Dress Pants, nobby styles, worth $450. Remember we sell Boys' Pants for 47 cents, worth $150. Just think of it, $348 for a splendid Man's Suit, all to match, really worth $900. $428 for a good Business Suit, any style, worth $100. $6 19 buys wide wale Black Worsted Suits, very cheap, for $1400. $729 for extra fine Suit, cost to manufacture $1600. Think again especially for your boys; suits now going at $298, worth $700. Children's pleated $chool Suits $118, worth $450. Children's School Suits $8 cents, worth $300. Knee Pants, all sizes, the best made, going at 16 cents per pair. Fine clothing almost given away. Do not judge the quality by low prices, as this is a fire insuaance sale, and the insurance authorities have ordered the entirestock to be sold. Remember this stock must be sold in five days. Store keeps open till 9 at night, Saturdays till 11 p. m. Look for large sign, which reads: "The Great Philadelphia Fire Sale of Clothing, No. 1115 Main Street, Arbenz & Co.'s Old Stand."
